The Management Board is authorized, subject to Supervisory Board approval, to stipulate other details of the capital increase and its execution, including the substantive details of rights attached to shares and the conditions of issue.

- (5) The Management Board is authorized, subject to Supervisory Board approval, to increase the Company's capital stock by issuing new no-par value bearer shares for cash consideration on one or more occasions up to a total of EUR 3,454,000 by or before June 6, 2025 (authorized capital II).

Such subscription rights may also be granted by way of the new shares being underwritten by one or more banks or equivalent undertakings within the meaning of § 186 (5) sentence 1 AktG with an obligation to offer them to the Company's shareholders for subscription (indirect subscription right).

However, subject to Supervisory Board approval, the Management Board is authorized to exclude shareholders' subscription rights in the following instances:

- a) to exclude fractional amounts from the subscription rights;
- b) if the issue price of the new shares is not substantially below that of the existing, listed shares at the time of final fixing of the issue price by the Management Board within the meaning of § 203 (1) and (2) and § 186 (3) sentence 4 AktG, and the percentage of the capital stock attributable to the new shares for which subscription rights are excluded does not exceed 10 % of the capital stock in existence at the time the authorization comes into effect or at the time the authorization is exercised, whichever amount is smaller. The maximum limit of 10 % of the capital stock is to be reduced by the pro rata amount of the capital stock attributable to those shares of the Company which are issued or sold as treasury shares during the term of this authorization subject to exclusion of shareholders' subscription rights in direct or analogous application of § 186 (3) sentence 4 AktG. It is also reduced by shares to be issued to service bonds with a conversion right or warrant or obligation to exercise a conversion right or warrant (bonds) to the extent that the bonds are issued during the period of this authorization subject to exclusion of subscription rights by analogous application of § 186 (3) sentence 4 AktG.

- (6) The capital stock is conditionally increased by up to EUR 3,454,000 by the issue of up to 3,454,000 new no-par-value bearer shares. The conditional capital increase serves the purpose of granting no-par-value 17 bearer shares to holders of convertible bonds or warrant bonds (or combinations of these instruments) (together “bonds”) with conversion rights or warrants or obligations to exercise conversion rights or warrants, which on the basis of the authorization approved by resolution of the Annual General Meeting on June 7, 2023, are issued by or before June 6, 2025, by the Company or a Group company within the meaning of § 18 AktG. The conditional capital increase is to be carried out only to the extent that conversion rights or warrants are used or obligations to exercise a conversion right or warrant are fulfilled and no other forms of fulfillment are employed. New shares issued because of the exercise of conversion rights or warrants or fulfillment of obligations to exercise conversion rights or warrants participate in earnings from the beginning of the financial year in which they are issued; to the extent legally permissible, the Management Board may, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, determine the earnings participation of new shares in deviation therefrom and also in deviation from § 60 (2) AktG, including for a financial year that has already expired.

The Management Board is authorized, subject to Supervisory Board approval, to determine the further details with regard to execution of the conditional capital increase.

IV. Supervisory Board

Composition, elections, period of office

- (1) The Supervisory Board consists of twelve members. Six of these are elected by the shareholders' meeting and six by the employees in accordance with the German Codetermination Act (MitbestG).

- (2) The election of members of the Supervisory Board and, where appropriate, replacement members, is for the period up to the end of the shareholders' meeting in which a resolution is passed on approval of their actions for the fourth financial year after the start of their period of office. The year in which the period of office commences is excluded. The shareholders' meeting may stipulate a shorter period when electing the members to be appointed by it. The appointment of a successor for any Supervisory Board member leaving before the end of his period of office applies for the rest of the departing member's period of office unless the shareholders' meeting decides otherwise.
- (3) On election of a Supervisory Board member a replacement member may simultaneously be appointed to take his place on the Supervisory Board if the Supervisory Board member leaves the Supervisory Board before the end of his period of office without a successor being appointed. The office of any replacement shareholder member of the Supervisory Board lapses as soon as a successor for the departing Supervisory Board member is appointed and at the latest at the end of the period of office of the departing Supervisory Board member.
- (4) The period of office of a Supervisory Board member terminates at all events at the end of the ordinary shareholders' meeting following his seventieth birthday.
- (5) The members and replacement members of the Supervisory Board may surrender their office by a written declaration to the Management Board with two weeks' prior notice even in the absence of an important reason. The chairman of the Supervisory Board must be informed about this. The company, represented by the Management Board, may waive the need for prior notice.

Chairman and deputy chairman

- (1) In accordance with section 27 (1) and (2) MitbestG the Supervisory Board elects from its ranks a chairman and deputy chairman. The period of office of the chairman and deputy chairman is the same as their period of office as members of the Supervisory Board unless a shorter period of office is stipulated on their election. The election should take place after the shareholders' meeting in which the Supervisory Board members to be appointed by the shareholders' meeting are newly elected; no special summons of this meeting is required.
- (2) If the chairman or deputy chairman leaves office prematurely the Supervisory Board must promptly conduct a new election.

- (3) The chairman or, if he is prevented, the deputy chairman is authorized on behalf of the Supervisory Board to make the declarations required for implementation of the resolutions of the Supervisory Board and its committees. Only the chairman or, if he is prevented, the deputy chairman is authorized to accept declarations on behalf of the Supervisory Board.

Rules for the Supervisory Board; amendments to the articles of association

- (1) The Supervisory Board issues its own rules of procedure in accordance with the provisions of the law and these articles of association.
- (2) The Supervisory Board is authorized to decide to make amendments to the articles of association relating only to its wording.

Summoning of meetings

- (1) Meetings of the Supervisory Board are summoned by the chairman or, if he is prevented, the deputy chairman with fourteen days' prior notice. The summons may be issued verbally, by telephone, in text form or by means of electronic communication. In calculating the period of notice, the date of dispatch of the summons and the date of the meeting are excluded. In urgent cases, the chairman may reduce the required period of prior notice.
- (2) The summons must state the individual agenda items for the meeting. Supplementary agenda items must be notified by the seventh day before the meeting unless later notification is justified by an urgent matter.
- (3) A meeting which has been summoned may be cancelled or postponed by the chairman at his reasonable discretion.

Resolutions; quorum

- (1) Resolutions of the Supervisory Board are generally passed in meetings. Meetings are led by the chairman. He decides the sequence in which agenda items are dealt with and the nature and sequence of voting.
- (2) Resolutions may be passed only on agenda items notified in good time with the summons. If an agenda item is not notified in good time, a resolution on it may be passed only if no member objects. In such cases, absent members must be given an opportunity to object to the resolution retroactively within a reasonable period stipulated by the chairman. The resolution takes effect only if no absent member objects to it within this period.

- (3) On the orders of the chairman, resolutions by the Supervisory Board may also be passed in a telephone or video conference or outside a meeting by means of votes cast verbally, by telephone, in text form or by means of electronic communication. A combination of the above possibilities for passing a resolution is permissible. There is no right to object to the form decreed by the chairman for passing a resolution. Any such resolutions are recorded by the chairman in writing and circulated to all members.
- (4) The Supervisory Board has a quorum if at least half of the total members which it must comprise participate in the vote on the resolution. Any member who abstains in the vote on the resolution is deemed to participate. Members connected to a telephone or video conference are deemed to be present. Absent members may participate in the vote on a resolution if they arrange for a vote to be submitted by another member in writing or which has been sent by telefax or in other facsimile form.
- (5) Resolutions are passed by a simple majority of votes cast unless a different majority is stipulated by mandatory provisions of the law. In the case of a tied vote, the chairman has a casting vote in a repeated vote on the same matter if there is again a tied vote. Paragraph 4 sentence 4 also applies to the casting vote in the second round. The deputy chairman has no casting vote. In the event of a tied vote, the chairman decides whether another vote should be taken in the same meeting.
- (6) The chairman may postpone the vote on a resolution on individual or all agenda items for a maximum of four weeks if the same number of shareholder and employee members would not participate in the vote on the resolution or there is other good reason for postponement. The chairman is not authorized to postpone the meeting again.
- (7) Minutes of the deliberations and resolutions of the Supervisory Board must be drawn up, signed by the chairman and circulated to each Supervisory Board member.

§ 13 Committees

- (1) Directly after the election of the chairman and deputy chairman, the Supervisory Board sets up a committee to perform the functions stipulated by section 31 (3) MitbestG. This committee comprises the chairman, the deputy chairman and two other members of whom one is elected by the employee members of the Supervisory Board and one by the shareholder members on the basis of a majority of votes cast.

- (2) The Supervisory Board may set up other committees and appoint members to them from its own ranks. Decision-making powers of the Supervisory Board may be delegated to a committee if this is permitted by law.
- (3) The committee may elect a chairman from its ranks unless the Supervisory Board nominates the chairman. The committee has a quorum if half of the members - but at least three members - participate in the vote on a resolution. In the event of a tied vote in the committee - except in the case of the committee in accordance with section 27 (3) MitbestG - the chairman of the committee has a casting vote in the event of a tie in a repeated vote on the same matter. The Supervisory Board may furthermore decide the composition, powers and procedures of committees. In the absence of a contrary ruling by the Supervisory Board, sections 11 and 12 apply accordingly for committees unless the Supervisory Board stipulates other provisions when setting up a committee.

Remuneration of the Supervisory Board

The members of the Mediation Committee and of the Nomination Committee each receive an additional fixed remuneration of EUR 10,000. Committee chairmen receive twice the remuneration under sentences 1 and 2. The remuneration for chairmanship and membership of the Mediation Committee and the Nomination Committee shall only be payable if the committees meet to perform their duties at least once in the financial year in question, irrespective of whether it is in the form of a face-to-face meeting, by telephone conference or by video conference.
- (3) The remuneration under paragraphs 1 and 2 falls due for payment at the end of the shareholders' meeting at which a resolution is adopted on formal approval of the actions of the members of the Supervisory Board for the financial year in question. Supervisory Board and committee members who belonged to the Supervisory Board or a committee for only part of the financial year receive remuneration pro rata temporis.

- (4) In addition to the remuneration under paragraphs 1 and 2, the members of the Supervisory Board each receive an attendance allowance for meetings of the Supervisory Board, and for meetings of any committees to which they belong, in the amount of EUR 2,000 per meeting subject to a maximum of EUR 2,000 per calendar day.
- (5) The Company reimburses reasonable expenses of members of the Supervisory Board against vouchers. Value-added tax is reimbursed by the Company to the extent that members of the Supervisory Board are entitled to charge the Company value-added tax separately and exercise that right.
- (6) The Company may take out third-party liability insurance in favor of the Supervisory Board members covering statutory liability resulting from Supervisory Board activity. In addition, it may take out legal expenses insurance covering Supervisory Board members' litigation and legal-defense risks in connection with their Supervisory Board activity.
